Harry was an office man. From the diary of Harry Spielberger, in a collection of Anne Spielberger Yudelson's papers, now in the possession of Peggy Mosinger Freedman:

I was born in Atlanta, GA., on Courtland St., on Sept. 25th, 1898. Was the fourth child in the family, having two older sisters and one brother. Earliest recollections are centered around our home at the corner of Hill & Little Sts., when I was about four or five years old.

We next moved to 330 E. Ga. Ave. from which point I began school, attending the E. Fair St. School. I remember the death of my oldest sister, Stella.

When we moved to Kennedy St., I attended the State St. School for the second and third grades. We returned to Ga. Ave. and I went to Fair St. School until the completion of the W.F.Slaton School at which time I was transferred there, and attended the fourth and fifth grades. Our next residence was at Lake Ave. and I attended Inman Park School. We then moved to 276 Highland Ave. and my seventh year at school was at the Boulevard School. We again removed to Ga. Ave. and my eighth year was spent at Fraser St. School. Teachers: Miss Mary Postel and Miss Lula Johnson. This was the pleasantest year of all. My relations with the teachers and class-mates were very pleasant. I was appointed correspondent for the two Atlanta papers having "School Pages", which appointment I held for the entire year. I led the boys of the class in studies. I was leader of the only debate held by the Class Club during the year.

In Sept. 1912 I entered the Boys' High School of Atlanta. Teachers were: Profs. W.C.Lowe, J.H.Smith,

L.O.Kimberly, Whetehead and Ragland. I completed the year very satisfactorily, being among the five best students.

In Sept. 1913 I entered the Senior Class of the Business Course of the Atlanta Boys' High School.

Teachers were the same as in the Junior Class. I completed the year very satisfactorily, ranking among the five best, and graduated at the Atlanta Theater on the evening of June 3rd, 1914.

The European War started in July and so upset the business world that I lost hopes of securing a good position, so worked with my father for a few months, after which time I became interested in Pharmacy and in Nov. 1914 I entered the Southern College of Pharmacy at Atlanta Ga.

I completed the Junior term, but I did not like this work, and when Mr. A. Brown offered me a job as clerk in his store, I accepted it temporarily, telling him that I was looking for another position. Through advertising in the papers, I got a position with the Atlanta

Office of the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Co., under Mr. E.W.Graves at 610 Rhodes Bldg., and began working for this concern on July 18, 1915.

During the year 1912 I joined the Eagle Social Club, a club of Jewish boys of my age. I held various positions in the club, as Sec. V.Pres. and Pres. for sixteen consecutive terms, at which time I refused to accept any further offices, giving as my reason that the other boys deserved a chance.

In Feb. 1913 I organized the "Social Double Ten" but this did not progress very well, and in June I was instrumental in breaking same up by inducing the majority of the members to resign.

When I was about eleven years old I joined the Boy Scouts and remained with this club until I entered the Senior Class of Boys High School.

Ilona SPIELBERGER and Chaijim MONIA were married on 3 Jun 1906 in Kassa, Kosice, Hungary.<sup>5</sup> Chaijim MONIA<sup>57</sup> was also known as Chajem Monis. He was born on 28 Jul 1875 in Chorostkow, Galicia.

Chaijim MONIA and Ilona SPIELBERGER had the following child:

- i. Ferencz MONIA<sup>57</sup> was born on 3 Mar 1907 in Kassa, Kosice, Hungary.

10. Joseph SPIELBERGER<sup>58</sup> (David-2, Most Recent Common Ancestor-1) was born on 24 May 1891 in Budapest, Austria.<sup>59</sup> He lived in Janok, Torna, Abauj Torna, Hungary in 1904.<sup>59</sup> He emigrated in Dec 1904 from Yanek, Austria.<sup>60</sup> Joseph immigrated on 26 Dec 1904 to New York City, New York, United States.<sup>59</sup> He lived at 5 Hunt in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, United States in 1907.<sup>53</sup> He resided 116 Powell Street in Atlanta, Georgia on 18 Jul 1915. Joseph was also known as Joe Spielberger.

Joseph SPIELBERGER and Margaret "Maggie" ADAIR were married on 1 Nov 1919 in Atlanta, Fulton, Georgia, United States. Margaret "Maggie" ADAIR<sup>61</sup> was born in 1898 in Georgia.<sup>62</sup>

11. Adolph SPIELBERGER<sup>63</sup> (Herman-2, Most Recent Common Ancestor-1) was born in 1844.<sup>64</sup> He was born on 7 May 1848 in Budapest, Budapest, Hungary.<sup>65</sup> He was born in 1851.<sup>66</sup> Adolph lived in Kecerovské Pekľany, Slovakia before 1865.<sup>67</sup> The ship's manifest listing Adolf Spielberger departing Hamburg shows his residence as Becklin. He was traveling with Simon Paszternak, also from Becklin. A search of the JewishGen Hungarian database shows a Simom Paszternak in the 1857 Hungarian Census as unmarried and living with Emanuel Friedman and family in Kaschau, Abauj-Torna. The census indicates that Simon was born in Keczer Peklen. This is close enough to Becklin that I have used the modern name for Keczer Peklin for this record. He immigrated estimated 1865. In 1869, Adolph Spielberger swore that he was a naturalized citizen of the US to get his passport. At that time (per Naturalization Process in US: Early History at <https://socialwelfare.library.vcu.edu/federal/naturalization-process-in-u-s-early-history/>), a man must have been a resident for five years to become a citizen. He lived in Nashville, Tennessee, United States in Apr 1869. Adolph Spielberger applied for a passport as a US citizen to return to Hungary. Family lore is that he returned to Hungary to marry. Adolph resided in Soobanya, Siroka, Saros, Hungary in 1869.<sup>64</sup> This is based on Adolph's wife's name being Betti Better. I think that this may be the record for a different Adolph Spielberger. He lived in Nyireghaza, Hungary in 1883.<sup>68</sup> He emigrated on 23 Jul 1883.<sup>69</sup> Adolph was already a citizen of the US, but brought his entire family in 1883. Adolph died on 17 Dec 1916 at the age of 68 in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama, USA.<sup>65</sup> He was buried at Temple Emanu-el Cemetery in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama, United States. He was also known as Abraham Spielberger. There are several birth records for children born in Eperjes, Saros, Hungary where the mother is Betti. In most, the father is Adolph Spielberger, but in one his name is Abraham Spielberger.

There is also a record of an Abraham Spielberger who married Betti Susman, but his father is listed as Jozsef. The marriage record is for May 19, 1870, which is later than the 1869 Census showing Adolph married to Betti Better.

However, I have ruled out that Abraham and Betti are the same couple as Adolph and Betti. We found too many places where Betti's maiden name is listed as Better. (February, 2019) See notes under Alternate Name of Abraham Spielberger.

Adolph SPIELBERGER and Bette BETTER were married before 1869 in Hungary.<sup>64</sup> Bette BETTER<sup>70</sup> was born in 1848 in Hungary.<sup>71</sup> She was born in 1851.<sup>64</sup> She emigrated on 23 Jul 1883 from New York City, New York, United States.<sup>69</sup> Bette died on 13 Dec 1917 at the age of 69 in Birmingham, Jefferson, Alabama.<sup>71</sup> She was buried in Jefferson County, Alabama, United States of America.<sup>71</sup>

Title

Spielberger Family

Jacob Spielberger, who was born in Hungary in January of 1856, came to Alabama around 1888. He opened a dry goods store and clothing store, Spielberger and Sons, at 217 and 219 Montgomery Avenue in Sheffield. His three sons, Jacob, Harry, and Ben worked with him as young men.

The Spielbergers figure prominently in the development of retail in Sheffield, in the building of Temple B'nai Israel, and in fraternal organizations.

CUTS BURGLAR AND ESCAPES

Attempt Made to Rob Joe Reisman Under Georgia Underpass

Had Joe Reisman, who works at a grocery store at 126 Garden street, anticipated the harrowing experience that he went through under the Powell street and Georgia railroad underpass last night at 7 o'clock, he would probably have chosen a different route, even though it carried him miles out of the way.

Joe was driving a delivery wagon through the dark underpass after turning the corner at Decatur, at the end of Powell. Suddenly he was challenged by two big looking negroes who climbed without ceremony into the wagon. One of them clutched his throat, while the other, with one hand on the wagon top to steady himself started through Joe's pockets.

Reisman was frightened to desperation by this time, but he managed to draw his knife and slash the hand of the negro who was rifling his pockets. The negro gave a cry of pain and released his hold, at the same time sounding a note of warning to his confederate. The two then vanished, and Reisman, who was at this juncture madly whipping up his horse, did not notice which direction they took.

Reisman reported the matter to the police, but gave a poor description of his assailants. He lost no money, for all he had, a few dollars, was safely hid in his coat pocket, which the negro failed to search. He exhibited his knife, the blade of which was covered with blood, and stated that there was also a free sprinkling of blood in his wagon.

Shortly after the affair it was rumored at police headquarters that a negro with a bandaged hand had been seen in a near beer shop at the corner of Butler and Decatur. Call Officer Barfield investigated, but found nothing. Reisman stated that the negro whom he cut had on a black hat and a black coat. He died on 9 Nov 1975 at the age of 88 in Atlanta, Georgia.<sup>28</sup> Joe was buried on 9 Nov 1975 in Atlanta, Georgia.<sup>28</sup>

63. Elliot MANNING JD<sup>44</sup> (Pauline (Pecky) Spielberger-4, Jacob-3, David-2, Most Recent Common Ancestor-1) was born in 1935 in Atlanta, Georgia. When Elliott Manning left his home in Atlanta, Georgia, to start his freshman year at Columbia College in New York City in 1951, he received a Ford Foundation scholarship to help cover the $640 annual tuition. With the help of financial aid, Manning later completed his juris doctor at Harvard Law School and became an expert in tax law. Today, the University of Miami Professor of Law and Dean's Distinguished Scholar for the Profession continues to pay it forward by contributing to School of Law scholarships through the University's Annual Fund.

"I've been supporting the Annual Fund for 30 years," says Manning, who joined the UM School of Law faculty in 1980. "I know the importance of scholarships from my own personal experience. As a young man from the South who had never been north of Virginia Beach before, being able to go to college at Columbia was a life-changing experience."

Before joining the UM faculty, Manning was a senior partner in the New York firm of Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton LLP, and hadn't considered an academic career. "But I took a sabbatical and taught for a semester at Stanford University," he says. "I found I liked teaching, and when the University of Miami needed someone to run the Graduate Program in Taxation, my wife and I came here."

During his time at UM, Manning has written several books and numerous articles on various federal income tax topics and is happy to share this tip: "When you donate to the Annual Fund or make other charitable contributions to the University, you can get a tax deduction that can save you up to a third of your contribution," he says. "That's a nice benefit for supporting a worthy cause."
